Exploring the Underpinnings of Roe v. Wade and Fallout if the Landmark Ruling is Overturned

This summer the American people anxiously await the Supreme Court's decision in the Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization case that may overturn a half-century of law regarding abortion. On Friday, June 17, the Town of Hillsboro and the Hillsboro Preservation Foundation offer an extraordinary opportunity to learn more about the Constitutional underpinnings of Roe v. Wade and the seminal ruling's potential undoing in the forthcoming decision.

This special Eat, Drink & Be Literary! presentation, Roe v. Wade and The Constitution, will feature Constitutional scholar BENEDICT LENHART for an evening devoted to an objective analysis of the Constitutional arguments used by those supporting, and those opposing, abortion rights.

"My goal," Lenhart said, "is to give citizens a solid grounding by covering the Constitution's key features and core themes. My hope is that attendees walk away with a better understanding of this founding document—and the historical and current debates about its meaning."
