

BLUEGRASS IN THE GAP

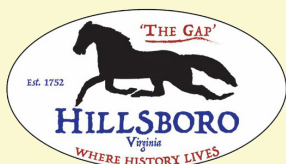

Bluegrass will fill the air when performers from Virginia, West Virginia, and Maryland take The Gap Stage for the annual Bluegrass in The Gap and Americana Festival. Spanning the musical genre from traditional to modern will be four of the region's top groups:

- Furnace Mountain Trio
- Dave Asti & Friends
- Circa Blue
- Carroll County Ramblers

The Americana Festival will feature quilt displays, an art show, artisans and crafts, food and beverages and much more!

Join us as a key sponsor and reach thousands of Bluegrass in The Gap Festival-goers and visitors touring the area during one of the busiest weekends for visitors to scenic western and the Hillsboro wine country via Route 9, Hillsboro's "Main Street."

Don't miss this opportunity to support the arts and culture in western Loudoun and to associate your brand or business with this popular festival.

Bluegrass in The Gap is presented by the Hillsboro Preservation Foundation in partnership with the Town of Hillsboro
